

Cowboy Church Bass Club Banquet

October 24, 2008 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Teri Stewart set up a great BBQ dinner. Members, friends, and family ate and played the "Price is Right" game.

After dinner, Justin Todd Herod sang several songs:

"The Man Above" - album SUNDAY'S BEST

"The Lord of the Rings"

"I Love you Son" - album YOU AIN'T SEEN NOTHIN' YET

"A Few Good Men" - album SUNDAY'S BEST

His website is <http://www.justintoddherod.org>

We watched a picture slide show that Teri created and then Reggie told a joke....

People were in their pews talking at church. Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church. Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate.

Soon everyone had exited the church except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seeming oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence.

So Satan walked up to the old man and said, 'Don't you know who I am?'

The man replied, 'Yep, sure do.' 'Aren't you afraid of me?' Satan asked.

'Nope, sure ain't' said the man.

'Don't you realize I can kill with a word?' asked Satan.

'Don't doubt it for a minute,' returned the old man, in an even tone.

'Did you know that I could cause you profound horrifying AGONY for all eternity?' persisted Satan.

'Yep,' was the calm reply.

'And you're still not afraid?' asked Satan.

'Nope,' said the old man.

More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, 'Well, why aren't you afraid of me?'

The man calmly replied, 'Been married to your sister for 15 years.'

Reggie then said the club was created 4 years ago and that being in the club is like being a member in a large family.

He read a scripture from the Mark 10:45. Jesus said.....

"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Reggie said we should call on our bothers when in need and then announced the highlights of the year and awards:
